London-based Korean photographer, Chan Hyo Bae, undertakes a unique residency in Chennai to examine the interstices in cultural preconceptions that define semantic boundaries relating to stereotypes, perception and issues of identity and inclusion. Following the residency, Chan-Hyo Bae aims to present a unique, city-inspired installation at The Gallery @ InKo Centre, as part of the Chennai Photo Biennale from 22 February to 24 March 2019.

The Chennai Photo Biennale (CPB) is an international festival of photography, which will take place in Chennai across several historical, art and public venues in the city, co-founded and co-organised by the CPB Foundation, a non-profit trust and Goethe Institut Chennai. Besides exhibitions, there will be an international seminar, workshops, film screenings, talks, residencies and performances. The city will be immersed in photography in various forms during the course of the Biennale. The purpose of the Biennale is to promote photographic art in public spaces, to make the Biennale a home for photography in India and to put Chennai and India on the international map of the art world. The Artistic Director and curator for CPB 2019 is renowned sculptor and photo performance artist from India, Pushpamala N. Titled The Fauna of Mirrors, the concept draws from an ancient Chinese myth that behind every mirror there lies an entirely different world inhabited by creatures unknown to earth. Photography, according to the Artistic Director, "is the new mirror portal of our age that creates an alternate universe filled with powerful images that reflect our world while having their own existence as spectres."

The second edition includes some spectacular public spaces such as the University of Madras, Madras Literary Society, Dakshinachitra, Egmore Museum, MRTS stations and other similar venues as well as galleries and at cultural institutions across the city. Cultural institutions in Chennai and India have come forward to support CPB 2019 by presenting work by exemplary artists from their respective countries. These include the British Council Chennai, the Canadian Consulate, InKo Centre Chennai, Pro-Helvetia Delhi and the US Consulate General Chennai.
