Stay original

Listen to folk and country music by artistes Yogi and Othasevuru

Yogi and Othasevuru are all set to perform at this month's AccessMusic. The bi-monthly series, presented by InKo Centre in association with Unwind Centre, aims to provide a platform for talented emerging musicians to share original scores and songwriting.

Yogi is a 15-year-old aspiring musician who grew up in Texas with a lot of country music. She has written many original songs and hopes to professionally build a career as a singer-songwriter.

Behind Othasevuru are Tharun Sekar and Pravekha Ravichandran, whose music inclines towards the folk genre.

AccessMusic is on at 7 pm, on December 13, at The Gallery@InKo Centre, Adyar Club Gate Road. For details, call 24361224.
