

Korea to dish out food, films in city

Chennai: It will be a season of films, music and food for connoisseurs of Korean art and culture in the city this year.

Korean consulate with Inko Centre will organise a 'Korean Food Festival of Chennai,' which will feature a special selection of traditional teas and drinks from Korea, a Korean Film Festival, a series of Korean music performances, a nonverbal performance and others as part of the effort to introduce Korean culture. Consul general of the Republic of Korea Young-seup Kwon on Thursday presented a certificate of merit to Rathi Jaffer, director of Inko Centre, in recognition of her contribution to activities on India-Korea cultural exchange since 2006.
