"Trol"

Date: July 9 (11 a.m. and 3 p.m.)

The story: The musical by Theaterwerkstatt Hannover is for children aged three to six years. Trol, the son of a painter, leaves his father to explore the world – dark forests, giant mountains, the desert and the North Pole. He makes new friends and falls in love. Finally, he is swallowed by a whale, and there he meets his father again, who was searching for him all along. Will they manage to free themselves?

Cast: Michael Habelitz, Roderik Vanderstraeten

Direction: Martina Van Boxen

Music: Roderik Vanderstraeten

"Heungbu Nolbu" (by InKo Centre and Theatre Seoul)

Date: July 7 (7 p.m.); July 8 (11 a.m.)

The story: "Heungbu Nolbu" is the story of two brothers. One good and kind and willing to share what he has, and the other who's just the opposite. They are watched over by goblins that find the mean-minded brother's behaviour completely despicable and decide to punish him, but at the same time reward the kind-hearted brother.

How they manage to do this forms the crux of the story. The play is based on a Korean folk tale which echoes in every culture.

It is said to be the first ever Indo-Korean production by children. There are nine children from Korea and eight from Chennai.

Cast: Kim Yebin, Sanjana Sridhar, Lee Gaeun, Vijay Ramnathan, Lee Jaewook, Sanjana Divaker Kalmanje, Joyanth Venkatasubramaniam, Lee Wonjin, Yasundhara Gautam, Kim Haedeun, Lakshmi Ramesh, Kim Yeonju, Cho Seok-hee, Saswat Sundar Behera, Paik Seohee, Sri Gayatri Sundara Padmanabhan, Lee Seoyeon.

"Atita! Outta Thiz World"

Date: July 1 (11 a.m. & 3 p.m.); July 2 and 3 (6 p.m.)

The story: Two men stumble upon a mysterious object near a meteorite crash site. Much to their amazement, they discover that the object is capable of a resonating sound, just like a percussion instrument. Accidentally, they unlock this alien object which sends out strange creatures that are outta thiz world! Just as suddenly they are sucked into the alien object along with the mysterious creatures. In the process of finding their way out of the object, the two men discover many truths about a world outta thiz world, which leaves them completely baffled...
